At the Sather Gate Entrance, a somewhat cryptic poster greeted my eyes, beginning with evangelical prophesies, followed by Birchite hysterias, followed by a cruel parody of the Anderson artical in Liberation.

As I recall, the poster may be paraphrased as follows:

" The world is coming to an end ! ! ! The Communists are about to lauch nuclear bombs on key positions all over. Millions of Chinese are on the march! Latin America is all in a ferment. . . Juvenile delinquency is preval ent, and also, love, hate, sex, and Drug-Addiction.....

Any hoo, there's a Party tonite at
